Elizabeth City, N.C. — Some local chefs have shared their recipes for favorite dishes, desserts and drinks that can be made at home during quarantine. Bring the flavors of these Elizabeth City restaurants right to your own kitchen with these mouth-watering dishes! The six participating restaurants include local and visitor favorites as well as up and coming bakery and coffeeshop, The SweetEasy.

Just one of the recipes shows readers how to make Montero's Restaurant's famous shrimp bisque - a house soup for the restaurant's first eight years and a popular option when it makes its return as a soup du jour.

For the homebrewer, Ghost Harbor Brewing Company has even shared the recipe for one of their popular Pale Ales, Gypsy Tears.

The community response has been positive, reaching over 3,000 people in the first Facebook release and receiving positive feedback from readers. The TDA plans to release a round two of recipes, pending restaurant participation.

These restaurants have partnered with Visit Elizabeth City, the Elizabeth City-Pasquotank County Tourism Development Authority.
